Paul Campbell

Disability Football Development Officer

After leaving school Paul started at Darlington FC. He made his first team debut from the bench aged 16 and scored his first career goal on his full league debut. After completing a two year apprenticeship he turned professional for a further 5 years. After leaving Darlington he worked for Middlesbrough Football Club in the Community where he spent the next 5 years, before becoming NRCFA Disability Football Development Officer in November 2009.

Paul is really excited about his role with the NRCFA, and is excited about the challenges he faces in developing disability football.

PR & Marketing Officer

Alan Geddes

Alan Geddes has joined the association following a 14 year apprenticeship within local radio working for TFM, Century Radio, Metro Radio and most recently Durham FM. Alan may be remembered for his 2 year stint as "Producer Al" and " Mini Mojo" on TFM's Breakfast Shows - Gregg Upwards in the Morning and The Mojo Breakfast Show.

As an ex referee and ex Chairman of the Referees Association Alan is no stranger to his colleagues within the association. His vast knowledge of the area and love of grass roots football will ensure that the association grows from strength to strength.

Alan is a mad Boro fan and is nicknamed "OROB" from the cup finals of 1997. There's a story behind it so next time you see him ask him to tell you.
